METRO PICTURES

WITH LIONEL BARRYMORE—AUDITORIUM TODAY.

THEATERS

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

"The Upheaval," tells a very clever story of Jim Gordon, a serious minded young college graduate, on whom falls the political mantle of his father, who has been the leader of a corrupt political ring, but the son determines to be true to the teachings of his dead mother and use his position only for good. But the people are suspicious of him and think he must be a grifter like his father. Gordon's only mistake is in making Sidney Benson director of public safety. Benson is a fraud, who is posing as a reformer to further his own ends. He is engaged to Joan Madison who is interested in the passing of the Sanitary Bill to provide for better conditions among the tenement dwellers. She goes to Benson for aid and he gives her an evasive answer, but she finally meets Gordon and he tells her that her own father is the owner of the houses in the debated district, and that the destruction of these buildings will mean penury for her. Principle triumphs over selfishness and she tells him to go ahead and have the bill passed. He does so and her father is left without means, but Gordon marries Joan and everything turns out all right for her and her father. After conferring many benefits on the city Gordon is finally able to convince the people of his honesty. Lionel Barrymore is appearing in the leading role of this production, which is the attraction at the Auditorium today.

Billie Burke in the regular release of her delightful story "Gloria's Romance," completes a most excellent bill. Tomorrow's Triangle offering is Norma Talmadge and Tully Marshall in "The Devil's Needle," and the Keystone comedy is "Never Again," featuring Willie Collier.

AT THE OLIVER.

"In Walked Jimmy," a very clever comedy drama will be presented at the Oliver theater this afternoon and tonight by the Oliver Stock company.

New scenery has been built and painted for the production and an exceptionally good performance may be expected. Mr. Oliver will assume the leading role, that of "Jimmy" who lands in a little town one day and finds that the owner of the shoe factory, that is very important to the town, is about to commit suicide on account of the financial condition of the concern. Jimmy prevents him and immediately starts to build up the business of the factory and incidentally, the whole town. Miss Desmond plays the part of Kitty Blake, the girl whom Jimmy adores while Miss Kennedy will appear as "Bobby" Day, and incidentally will introduce the clever little song "In Walked Jimmy," which was written especially for this piece. The other members of the company will have congenial parts and on the whole the piece should be quite a treat for stock patrons. It will be the bill for the balance of the week and on Sunday "The Common Law," will be presented.

"MY HOME TOWN GIRL."

Enjoying perhaps the widest popularity of any two co-stars of musical comedy by reason of their striking success in "The Girl of My Dreams," Hyams and McIntyre are adding to their laurels this season in their tawny and witty new vehicle "My Home Town Girl." The book and lyrics are by Frank Stammers who, in his entire career could not have written a piece more perfectly fitted to John Hyams and Lella McIntyre in their own peculiar style of entertaining.

"My Home Town Girl," which is produced by Perry J. Kelly, will be seen at the Oliver on Sept. 29. Costly scenery of the latest pattern and beautiful gowns and costumes of ultra-modern creation add to the attractiveness of the piece, while Mr. Kelly has surrounded his two stars with a cast of well known performers and a bevy of pretty girls who sing and dance to the lilting tunes of Louis A. Hirsch, composer of the music. The company carries a number of musicians.

AT THE LASSALLE.

Frances Nelson and E. K. Lincoln, two of the most prominent players of the World film roster will be featured at the Lassalle today in "The Almighty Dollar." The story tells of a young wife who is neglected by her husband on account of his business matters and the story rises to a strong dramatic climax which is well handled by the entire cast. An exceptionally well staged series of scenes in one of the New York subways, culminating in a big fire marks this offering as distinctive.

Gladys Hulette in the title role of "The Shine Girl," will delight the patrons at the Lassalle on Friday. The story concerns a shine girl of the positive, individual sort that is sometimes met with in the most unexpected places. Although this little girl's vocation is that of a boot-black, she is not content with the mere shining of shoes and believes, among other things, that sorrow has the same effect on people that shoe blacking has on shoes, it made them dark at first, but they polish up brighter after it has been rubbed on. Miss Hulette gives a beautiful portrayal of the character and the entire picture is one that will please immensely.

AT THE COLONIAL.

An interesting story of stage life entitled "The Footlights of Fate," which was shown at the Colonial yesterday will be repeated today. The story tells of a young girl who goes into the world to make good at the theatrical profession and the leading parts are well handled by Marc Mac Dermott and Naomi Childers, two very prominent players for the Vitaphone company. Another of the popular juvenile comedies featuring several clever little folks will complete this big feature today.

On Friday another excellent Blue Ribbon feature will be presented entitled "The Caveman," with Robert Edeson, a dramatic player of ability, interpreting the title role.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

Beginning with matinee performances this afternoon, the new bill of vaudeville at the Orpheum will feature Harrison Brockbank, in a patriotic dramatic sketch entitled "The Drummer Boy of '76." This is a particularly timely feature and one that is sure to prove most novel and entertaining. Charles Olcott will offer his original program of comic opera diversions, introducing clever song specialties and piano selections. The three Bennett sisters, physical culture exponents will present something out of the ordinary in boxing, wrestling and other gymnastic exhibitions. Frances Dyer, an operatic prima donna of note, possessed of a pleasing personality, voice and appearance, will also be heard. Her repertoire is selected with a view to her versatility and includes numbers of the classical and popular schools of melody. Pail Lua and his singing guitar assisted by Juli Analeka, the prettiest Hula dancer in Honolulu will offer a Hawaiian specialty that will prove entertaining.

A Clogged System Must Be Cleared.

You will find Dr. King's New Life Pills a gentle yet effective laxative for removing impurities from the system. Accumulated waste poisons the blood; dizziness, biliousness and pimply, muddy complexion are the distressing effects. A dose of Dr. King's New Life Pills tonight will assure you a free, full bowel movement in the morning. At your Druggist, 25c.—Adv.
